Enabling innovation through high-performance business operations

Connect your digital infrastructure to your business objectives with design and direction from the technological leaders at Argano. As a platform-agnostic digital consultancy, Argano provides the solutions and teams to deliver enterprise digital transformation platforms that serve your overall strategy and drive immediate business outcomes.

Your enterprise architecture should be an ever-evolving framework — firm enough to support immediate business goals but flexible enough to ensure ease of transformation as markets and global economies change. Leveraging Argano's expertise, you benefit from a strategically designed, multi-tiered platform that can easily scale to support increased workloads, new initiatives, and evolving business trends.

The goal of any enterprise architecture is to help you move forward faster. Our team ensures your system and support strategy are capable of constant evolution, providing you with ongoing insights that facilitate continuous improvement and further your teams' ability to innovate and leverage emerging technologies and tactics.

Our team will conduct thorough risk assessments, identify potential vulnerabilities, and develop mitigation strategies as we concurrently design a connected solution that streamlines operations, eliminates redundancies, and improves resource utilization. The outcome is a more secure system that drives both cost savings and operational efficiencies.

Through comprehensive analysis and understanding of your business processes, our team will develop customized enterprise architecture solutions that maximize value and minimize disruption. Additionally, we help establish the standards, policies, and governance frameworks to ensure consistency and compliance across your entire organization.

Argano LLC (Argano) Website Global Privacy Policy

Thank you for choosing to be part of our community at Argano LLC ("Argano", "we", "us", or "our"). We are committed to protecting your personal information and your right to privacy. If you have any questions or concerns about our policy, or our practices with regards to your personal information, please contact us at privacy@argano.com.

In this privacy notice, we describe our privacy policy. We seek to explain to you in the clearest way possible what information we collect, how we use it and what rights you have in relation to it. If there are any terms in this privacy policy that you do not agree with, please discontinue use of our Sites and our services. It is Argano's policy to comply with all applicable privacy and data protection laws. This commitment reflects the value we place on earning and keeping the trust of our employees, customers, business partners and others who share their personal information with us.

This Global Privacy Policy (this "Policy") describes how Argano protects your privacy when we collect personal information on Argano Internet sites (such as argano.com). As used in this Policy, the term "personal information" means information that identifies you personally, alone or in combination with other information available to us.

Your Consent

By visiting an Argano website or providing personal information to us, you are consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy. If you do not consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy (and any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements), do not use Argano Internet Sites, contact Argano, or Submit Data to Argano via Internet form.

Please read this privacy policy carefully as it will help you make informed decisions about sharing your personal information with us.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Limitations on the Collection, Use, and Disclosure of Personal Information

To the extent required by applicable law, whenever Argano collects personal information on an Argano Internet Site, Argano will:

1. WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

Personal Information you disclose to us

In short: We collect personal information that you provide to us such as name, address, contact information, job title, company details, and payment information.

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when expressing an interest in obtaining information about us or our products and services, when participating in activities on the Sites or otherwise contacting us.

The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us and the Sites, the choices you make and the products and features you use. The personal information we collect can include the following:

Name and Contact Data. We collect your first and last name, email address, phone number, and other similar contact data.

Payment Data. We collect data necessary to process your payment if you make purchases, such as a credit card number, and the security code associated with your payment instrument. All payment data is stored by our payment processor and you should review its privacy policies and contact the payment processor directly to respond to your questions.

All personal information that you provide to us must be true, complete and accurate, and you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

Information automatically collected

In Short: Some information – such as IP address and/or browser and device characteristics is automatically collected when you visit our Sites.

Like many businesses, when you access and use an Argano Site, there are 3 ways we may collect information about you:

1. Information Sent to Us by Your Web Browser

Argano collects information that is sent to us automatically by your web browser. This information typically includes the IP address of your Internet service provider, the name of your operating system, browser and device characteristics, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our Sites and other technical information. The information we receive depends on the settings on your web browser. Please check your browser if you want to learn what information your browser sends or how to change your settings. The information provided by your browser does not identify you personally. We use this information to create statistics that help us improve our sites and make them more compatible with the technology used by our Internet visitors

2. Information You Knowingly and Voluntarily Provide

Argano collects the information you knowingly and voluntarily provide when you use an Argano Internet Site, for example, the information you provide when you sign up to receive email alerts, when you complete a survey, or when you ask us a question or email us with feedback. In many cases, this information will be personal information. Argano uses this information for the purposes for which you provide it. We may also use the information we collect on Argano Internet Sites for various business purposes such as customer service, fraud prevention, market research, improving our products and services, and providing you and your company with information and offers we believe may be of interest to you. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.

Information collected from other sources

In Short: We may collect limited data from public databases, marketing partners, and other outside sources.

We may obtain information about you from other sources, such as public databases, joint marketing partners, as well as other third parties. Examples of the information we receive from other sources include: social media profile information, marketing leads and search results, and links, including paid listings (such as sponsored links).

Links to Third Party Internet Sites

Argano Internet Sites may contain links to Internet sites that are not operated by Argano. These links are provided as a service and do not imply any endorsement of the activities or content of these sites, nor any association with their operators. Argano does not control these Internet sites and is not responsible for their content, security, or privacy practices. We urge you to review the privacy policy posted on websites you visit before using the site or providing personal information.

2. HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We process your information for purposes based on legitimate business interests, the fulfillment of our contract with you, compliance with our legal obligations, and/or your consent.

We use personal information collected via our Sites for a variety of business purposes described below. We process your personal information for these purposes in reliance on our legitimate business interests ("Business Purposes"), in order to enter into or perform a contract with you ("Contractual"), with your consent ("Consent"), and/or for compliance with our legal obligations ("Legal Reasons"). We indicate the specific processing grounds we rely on next to each purpose listed below.

We use the information we collect or receive:

3. WILL YOUR INFORMATION BE SHARED WITH ANYONE?

In Short: We only share information with your consent, to comply with laws, to protect your rights, or to fulfill business obligations.

Argano will never sell personal information collected from its Internet sites to mailing list brokers or other third parties. Argano may share your personal information with third parties we hire to perform services for us. These third parties are required to use the personal information we share with them only to perform services on our behalf and to treat your personal information as strictly confidential. In some cases, Argano may share your personal information with third parties who partner with us to provide products and services to our customers. When we do so, we will require our business partners to use the personal information we share with them in a manner consistent with the purposes for which it was originally collected (or to which you subsequently consented) and only as permitted under this Policy, any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements, and all applicable privacy and data protection laws. In certain, limited circumstances we may share or transfer personal information to unrelated third parties.

For example, we may provide personal information to a third party for the following reasons:

4. DO WE USE COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES?

In Short: Yes, we use cookies and other tracking technologies to collect and store your information.

Information Collected by Placing a "Cookie" On Your Computer

Argano may obtain information about you by installing a "tag" on your computer's hard drive. This tag is known as a "cookie." All Argano Internet Sites use "session cookies." A session cookie is used to tag your computer with a computer-generated, unique identifier when you access our site. A session cookie does not identify you personally and expires after you close your browser. We use session cookies to collect statistical information about the ways visitors use our sites', which pages they visit, which links they use, and how long they stay on each page. We analyze this information in statistical form to better understand our visitor's interests and needs to improve the content and functionality of our sites. Some Argano Internet sites also use "persistent cookies." These cookies do not expire when you close your browser; they stay on your computer until you delete them. By assigning your computer a unique identifier, we are able to create a database of your previous choices and preferences, and in situations where these choices or preferences need to be collected again, they can be provided by us automatically, saving you time and effort. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may set your browser to reject cookies or to alert you when a cookie is placed on your computer. Although you are not required to accept cookies when you visit an Argano Internet Site, you may be unable to use all of the functionality of the site if your browser rejects our cookies.

5. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We keep your information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this privacy policy unless otherwise required by law.

Argano retains all personal information collected on Argano Internet Sites and web forms as long as necessary to provide the services, products, and information you request or as permitted by applicable law.

We respond to all requests we receive from individuals wishing to exercise their data protection rights in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to keep any information in our archives that we deem necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Access to Personal Information

You may review, correct and update the personal information that you provide to us by writing to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA or emailing us at privacy@argano.com.

6. HOW DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SAFE?

In Short: We aim to protect your personal information through a system of organizational and technical security measures.

Your personal information will generally be stored in Argano databases or databases maintained by our service providers. Most of these databases are stored on servers located in the United States. To the extent required by law, if your personal information will be transferred outside your country an appropriate notice will be provided. Argano maintains reasonable safeguards to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of your personal information. For example, we use secure socket layer (SSL) technology to transfer personal information over the Internet. Although we use security measures to help protect your personal information against unauthorized disclosure, misuse or alteration, as is the case with all computer networks linked to the Internet, we cannot guarantee the security of information provided over the Internet and will not be responsible for breaches of security beyond our reasonable control.

7. WHAT ARE YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS?

In Short: In some regions, such as the European Economic Area, you have rights that allow you greater access to and control you're your personal information. You may review, change, or terminate your account at any time.

If you are a resident of the European Economic Area, you have the following data protection rights:

Cookies and similar technologies: Most Web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove cookies and to reject cookies.

8. DO WE MAKE UPDATES TO THIS POLICY?

In Short: Yes, we will make updates to this policy as necessary to stay compliant with relevant laws.

Argano reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to change, modify, add or remove any portion of this policy, in whole or in part, at any time. Changes in Policy will be effective when posted. You agree to review this Policy periodically to be aware of any changes. Your continued use of the Site after any changes to this Policy will be considered acceptance of those changes.

9. CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT

If you are a California resident, you may have certain rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act regarding your personal information, including:

You can exercise one or more of these rights by emailing us at privacy@argano.com. You can also submit a contact form, or write to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA. You have the right to opt-out of marketing communications we send you at any time. You can exercise this right by clicking on the “unsubscribe” or “opt-out” link in the marketing emails we send you. To opt-out of other forms of marketing (such as postal marketing or telemarketing), you may contact us using the contact details provided below.

10. HOW CAN YOU CONTACT US ABOUT THIS POLICY?

If you have any questions about this Policy or our use of your personal information, you may email us at privacy@argano.com or by post to:

Strategic development, support, and service for the tools that keep you competing

Are you getting all you can from the programs and solutions that fuel your business? Lean on Argano's enterprise technology consulting team to design, develop, and deliver a comprehensive, connected strategy for your ERP, CRM, HCM, SCM, EPM, SPM, and all your business application needs — whether you are running your business operations on Microsoft, Oracle, SAP, Salesforce, or a combination of platforms.

We identify areas for strategic growth and performance optimization, and then define the features and capabilities in the solutions required to achieve your desired business outcomes. When every business application is always running at optimal performance, your business operations will be scalable and flexible enough to serve your current strategy and future goals.

Business tools are built to meet the unique requirements of your business, and they ought to be used that way, as well. Argano is your trusted partner from planning, road mapping, development, and testing — to delivery and implementation. Our partnership continues with change management programs, training, and managed services to ensure your business applications are maximized strategically across the enterprise.

Every business aims to achieve more with less. Our consultants focus on productivity and optimization in every business application engagement, ensuring you stay within budget and minimize risk. Post-implementation, we provide performance monitoring tools and keep you updated on new features and enhancements. With this approach, your business applications are built to maximize efficiency and continually optimize performance.

Connectivity is the cornerstone. Argano designs business applications to facilitate seamless support, communication, data flow, and process automation across departments and functions. With a forward-looking approach focused on continuous improvement, we ensure accelerated adoption of new technologies, providing you with the tools and tactics to quickly pivot in the face of new challenges and opportunities.

Business applications should not be "one size fits all." Your requirements and processes are unique to your organization, and your apps should be, too. Our team delivers a tailored approach aligned to your strategies — from initial assessment to continuous improvement — that empowers you to derive maximum value from your technology investments. Rolling in compliance rules, connecting to external data sources, creating user-specific interfaces: it is all part of creating the perfect fit for your needs.

Optimized performance, greater scalability, and improved cost efficiency

Maintain seamless operations and keep your business solutions up to date with support from Argano's application managed services team and tools. With solution expertise and best practices, we enable your team to spend more time working with technology and less time working on it, so you can concentrate on strategic growth, staying competitive, and driving success in your market.

The reliability of your technology is crucial for maintaining business continuity with optimal performance. Rely on Argano application support services to ensure your business solutions run at peak efficiency, so they can continually support your high-performance operations.

Can your business applications adapt as your needs evolve? Whether your business is scaling up operations, entering new markets, or requiring new functionalities, Argano application support manages your updates and modifications so you can meet these changing demands with confidence.

Maximize your technology investment by optimizing your software lifecycle and extending the longevity of your business applications. We can help you get more from your solutions, so you can get more out of your business with a strategic approach to application management.

System failures or external disruptions can lead to significant downtime and costs, and your in-house IT team may not have the bandwidth or expertise to tackle those risks effectively. Managed services minimize risk associated with downtime by preventing it from happening in the first place.

Strategic cloud solutions that drive measurable ROI

If your foundational business applications — ERP and CRM — are still on-premises, you are not alone. But you soon may be. Putting tools, teams, and data in the cloud is the only way to ensure a business can scale to meet demand, pivot to address change, and adapt to and incorporate new technologies. Determine where you want to grow strategically and identify where you want to improve performance, the next stop is the cloud. Argano's cloud migration services team will take you there.

With Argano as your cloud migration partner, you are sure to get the best fit for your business. Whether you opt for a private, public, or hybrid cloud and regardless of platform - Azure, AWS, Google, Oracle, SAP, Salesforce - Argano has deep and proven expertise in providing your business with a secure, strategic move to the cloud (or clouds) of your choice. Every migration is designed to minimize disruption to existing business practices so you can keep accelerating as you move to the cloud.

Serving more than 100 of the Fortune 500, Argano knows how to address the performance needs of competitive businesses. Argano LLC (Argano) Website Global Privacy Policy

Thank you for choosing to be part of our community at Argano LLC ("Argano", "we", "us", or "our"). We are committed to protecting your personal information and your right to privacy. If you have any questions or concerns about our policy, or our practices with regards to your personal information, please contact us at privacy@argano.com.

In this privacy notice, we describe our privacy policy. We seek to explain to you in the clearest way possible what information we collect, how we use it and what rights you have in relation to it. If there are any terms in this privacy policy that you do not agree with, please discontinue use of our Sites and our services. It is Argano's policy to comply with all applicable privacy and data protection laws. This commitment reflects the value we place on earning and keeping the trust of our employees, customers, business partners and others who share their personal information with us.

This Global Privacy Policy (this "Policy") describes how Argano protects your privacy when we collect personal information on Argano Internet sites (such as argano.com). As used in this Policy, the term "personal information" means information that identifies you personally, alone or in combination with other information available to us.

Your Consent

By visiting an Argano website or providing personal information to us, you are consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy. If you do not consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy (and any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements), do not use Argano Internet Sites, contact Argano, or Submit Data to Argano via Internet form.

Please read this privacy policy carefully as it will help you make informed decisions about sharing your personal information with us.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Limitations on the Collection, Use, and Disclosure of Personal Information

To the extent required by applicable law, whenever Argano collects personal information on an Argano Internet Site, Argano will:

1. WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

Personal Information you disclose to us

In short: We collect personal information that you provide to us such as name, address, contact information, job title, company details, and payment information.

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when expressing an interest in obtaining information about us or our products and services, when participating in activities on the Sites or otherwise contacting us.

The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us and the Sites, the choices you make and the products and features you use. The personal information we collect can include the following:

Name and Contact Data. We collect your first and last name, email address, phone number, and other similar contact data.

Payment Data. We collect data necessary to process your payment if you make purchases, such as a credit card number, and the security code associated with your payment instrument. All payment data is stored by our payment processor and you should review its privacy policies and contact the payment processor directly to respond to your questions.

All personal information that you provide to us must be true, complete and accurate, and you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

Information automatically collected

In Short: Some information – such as IP address and/or browser and device characteristics is automatically collected when you visit our Sites.

Like many businesses, when you access and use an Argano Site, there are 3 ways we may collect information about you:

1. Information Sent to Us by Your Web Browser

Argano collects information that is sent to us automatically by your web browser. This information typically includes the IP address of your Internet service provider, the name of your operating system, browser and device characteristics, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our Sites and other technical information. The information we receive depends on the settings on your web browser. Please check your browser if you want to learn what information your browser sends or how to change your settings. The information provided by your browser does not identify you personally. We use this information to create statistics that help us improve our sites and make them more compatible with the technology used by our Internet visitors

2. Information You Knowingly and Voluntarily Provide

Argano collects the information you knowingly and voluntarily provide when you use an Argano Internet Site, for example, the information you provide when you sign up to receive email alerts, when you complete a survey, or when you ask us a question or email us with feedback. In many cases, this information will be personal information. Argano uses this information for the purposes for which you provide it. We may also use the information we collect on Argano Internet Sites for various business purposes such as customer service, fraud prevention, market research, improving our products and services, and providing you and your company with information and offers we believe may be of interest to you. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.

Information collected from other sources

In Short: We may collect limited data from public databases, marketing partners, and other outside sources.

We may obtain information about you from other sources, such as public databases, joint marketing partners, as well as other third parties. Examples of the information we receive from other sources include: social media profile information, marketing leads and search results, and links, including paid listings (such as sponsored links).

Links to Third Party Internet Sites

Argano Internet Sites may contain links to Internet sites that are not operated by Argano. These links are provided as a service and do not imply any endorsement of the activities or content of these sites, nor any association with their operators. Argano does not control these Internet sites and is not responsible for their content, security, or privacy practices. We urge you to review the privacy policy posted on websites you visit before using the site or providing personal information.

2. HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We process your information for purposes based on legitimate business interests, the fulfillment of our contract with you, compliance with our legal obligations, and/or your consent.

We use personal information collected via our Sites for a variety of business purposes described below. We process your personal information for these purposes in reliance on our legitimate business interests ("Business Purposes"), in order to enter into or perform a contract with you ("Contractual"), with your consent ("Consent"), and/or for compliance with our legal obligations ("Legal Reasons"). We indicate the specific processing grounds we rely on next to each purpose listed below.

We use the information we collect or receive:

3. WILL YOUR INFORMATION BE SHARED WITH ANYONE?

In Short: We only share information with your consent, to comply with laws, to protect your rights, or to fulfill business obligations.

Argano will never sell personal information collected from its Internet sites to mailing list brokers or other third parties. Argano may share your personal information with third parties we hire to perform services for us. These third parties are required to use the personal information we share with them only to perform services on our behalf and to treat your personal information as strictly confidential. In some cases, Argano may share your personal information with third parties who partner with us to provide products and services to our customers. When we do so, we will require our business partners to use the personal information we share with them in a manner consistent with the purposes for which it was originally collected (or to which you subsequently consented) and only as permitted under this Policy, any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements, and all applicable privacy and data protection laws. In certain, limited circumstances we may share or transfer personal information to unrelated third parties.

For example, we may provide personal information to a third party for the following reasons:

4. DO WE USE COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES?

In Short: Yes, we use cookies and other tracking technologies to collect and store your information.

Information Collected by Placing a "Cookie" On Your Computer

Argano may obtain information about you by installing a "tag" on your computer's hard drive. This tag is known as a "cookie." All Argano Internet Sites use "session cookies." A session cookie is used to tag your computer with a computer-generated, unique identifier when you access our site. A session cookie does not identify you personally and expires after you close your browser. We use session cookies to collect statistical information about the ways visitors use our sites', which pages they visit, which links they use, and how long they stay on each page. We analyze this information in statistical form to better understand our visitor's interests and needs to improve the content and functionality of our sites. Some Argano Internet sites also use "persistent cookies." These cookies do not expire when you close your browser; they stay on your computer until you delete them. By assigning your computer a unique identifier, we are able to create a database of your previous choices and preferences, and in situations where these choices or preferences need to be collected again, they can be provided by us automatically, saving you time and effort. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may set your browser to reject cookies or to alert you when a cookie is placed on your computer. Although you are not required to accept cookies when you visit an Argano Internet Site, you may be unable to use all of the functionality of the site if your browser rejects our cookies.

5. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We keep your information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this privacy policy unless otherwise required by law.

Argano retains all personal information collected on Argano Internet Sites and web forms as long as necessary to provide the services, products, and information you request or as permitted by applicable law.

We respond to all requests we receive from individuals wishing to exercise their data protection rights in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to keep any information in our archives that we deem necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Access to Personal Information

You may review, correct and update the personal information that you provide to us by writing to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA or emailing us at privacy@argano.com.

6. HOW DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SAFE?

In Short: We aim to protect your personal information through a system of organizational and technical security measures.

Your personal information will generally be stored in Argano databases or databases maintained by our service providers. Most of these databases are stored on servers located in the United States. To the extent required by law, if your personal information will be transferred outside your country an appropriate notice will be provided. Argano maintains reasonable safeguards to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of your personal information. For example, we use secure socket layer (SSL) technology to transfer personal information over the Internet. Although we use security measures to help protect your personal information against unauthorized disclosure, misuse or alteration, as is the case with all computer networks linked to the Internet, we cannot guarantee the security of information provided over the Internet and will not be responsible for breaches of security beyond our reasonable control.

7. WHAT ARE YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS?

In Short: In some regions, such as the European Economic Area, you have rights that allow you greater access to and control you're your personal information. You may review, change, or terminate your account at any time.

If you are a resident of the European Economic Area, you have the following data protection rights:

Cookies and similar technologies: Most Web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove cookies and to reject cookies.

8. DO WE MAKE UPDATES TO THIS POLICY?

In Short: Yes, we will make updates to this policy as necessary to stay compliant with relevant laws.

Argano reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to change, modify, add or remove any portion of this policy, in whole or in part, at any time. Changes in Policy will be effective when posted. You agree to review this Policy periodically to be aware of any changes. Your continued use of the Site after any changes to this Policy will be considered acceptance of those changes.

9. CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT

If you are a California resident, you may have certain rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act regarding your personal information, including:

You can exercise one or more of these rights by emailing us at privacy@argano.com. You can also submit a contact form, or write to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA. You have the right to opt-out of marketing communications we send you at any time. You can exercise this right by clicking on the “unsubscribe” or “opt-out” link in the marketing emails we send you. To opt-out of other forms of marketing (such as postal marketing or telemarketing), you may contact us using the contact details provided below.

10. HOW CAN YOU CONTACT US ABOUT THIS POLICY?

If you have any questions about this Policy or our use of your personal information, you may email us at privacy@argano.com or by post to:

Create new efficiencies, reduce costs, fuel growth

Automation is the fastest path to exponential productivity leaps and increased profits. The question is where to start (or continue). The answer is Argano. Our solution experts and business consultants will work alongside your stakeholders to identify the "low-hanging fruit" in your enterprise — opportunities for strategic growth and improved performance — and create a plan for automating critical workflows throughout. The result is better work through fewer hands, improved customer service, operations, and BI, and increased cost savings.

We help you identify key operational workflows in your business that are easy targets for automation, empowering you to execute tasks more quickly, optimize technological resources, and free up employees from repetitive and mundane tasks. Focus teams and talent on building the business: leave operations to automation.

Not only does automating service reduce overhead costs, it also creates a more effective and engaging customer experience as you can deliver personalized service more quickly. Through automation — such as chatbots and virtual assistants — your customers will be able to easily "serve themselves" for most routine issues, and employees can focus exclusively on high-value tasks.

Get to the heart of the matter faster with automation providing real-time access to critical data, enabling enhanced monitoring and management of information into and out of the enterprise. Plug in automated workflows with analytics tools and get deeper insights into system and team performance, competitive climates, and new revenue and efficiency opportunities.

Leverage Argano's industry-specific expertise to automate compliance tasks across healthcare, manufacturing, finance, retail, and any major vertical. Our team creates the right solutions that both help assure compliance and automatically create detailed logs and records of all activities, making it easier to audit processes, maintain transparency, and keep pace with rapidly changing rules and regulations.

Drive increased productivity and accelerate innovation

To be competitive, you need to be innovative. To be innovative, you need custom automations and applications that fit your needs, which is where Argano's business application development team comes in. No matter how unique your requirements may be — and no matter what ERP or CRM platform you may be on — we design and deliver business applications to support your longer-term strategic goals and satisfy your most pressing business needs.

The work of true digital transformation begins in earnest in the trenches — automating common and critical tasks to improve productivity and data clarity while simultaneously reducing costs. With deep technology and consulting experience, Argano's team quickly designs and delivers the business applications that perfect your most crucial workflows, empowering your people to peak performance.

Are your people in different locations? Are departments using different tools? Are processes hampered by disparate systems? We connect your people, platforms, and data by delivering applications that unify disparate systems. Whether you are using Microsoft, SAP, Oracle, Salesforce, or any other solution, we help globally dispersed teams work seamlessly, efficiently, and securely.

There may be no business investment that delivers greater ROI than application development. With solutions uniquely tailored to your tactics and teams, we empower you to work both faster and smarter. The Argano difference is that in addition to providing hands-on development, we also offer training for your people, upskilling IT technicians into software developers, ensuring you have the resources you need to deploy the right capabilities — faster and for less.

The data required to drive your business forward lives in most every location and format: collecting and connecting it all can be a daunting task. Our data and analytics experts will build the BI apps that make your data more comprehensive and more actionable, integrating your internal workflows with outside data sources, personalizing data based on job function, and making it more accessible and easily understood so stakeholders can make informed and faster decisions.

Argano LLC (Argano) Website Global Privacy Policy

Thank you for choosing to be part of our community at Argano LLC ("Argano", "we", "us", or "our"). We are committed to protecting your personal information and your right to privacy. If you have any questions or concerns about our policy, or our practices with regards to your personal information, please contact us at privacy@argano.com.

In this privacy notice, we describe our privacy policy. We seek to explain to you in the clearest way possible what information we collect, how we use it and what rights you have in relation to it. If there are any terms in this privacy policy that you do not agree with, please discontinue use of our Sites and our services. It is Argano's policy to comply with all applicable privacy and data protection laws. This commitment reflects the value we place on earning and keeping the trust of our employees, customers, business partners and others who share their personal information with us.

This Global Privacy Policy (this "Policy") describes how Argano protects your privacy when we collect personal information on Argano Internet sites (such as argano.com). As used in this Policy, the term "personal information" means information that identifies you personally, alone or in combination with other information available to us.

Your Consent

By visiting an Argano website or providing personal information to us, you are consenting to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy. If you do not consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal information as described in this Policy (and any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements), do not use Argano Internet Sites, contact Argano, or Submit Data to Argano via Internet form.

Please read this privacy policy carefully as it will help you make informed decisions about sharing your personal information with us.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Limitations on the Collection, Use, and Disclosure of Personal Information

To the extent required by applicable law, whenever Argano collects personal information on an Argano Internet Site, Argano will:

1. WHAT INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT?

Personal Information you disclose to us

In short: We collect personal information that you provide to us such as name, address, contact information, job title, company details, and payment information.

We collect personal information that you voluntarily provide to us when expressing an interest in obtaining information about us or our products and services, when participating in activities on the Sites or otherwise contacting us.

The personal information that we collect depends on the context of your interactions with us and the Sites, the choices you make and the products and features you use. The personal information we collect can include the following:

Name and Contact Data. We collect your first and last name, email address, phone number, and other similar contact data.

Payment Data. We collect data necessary to process your payment if you make purchases, such as a credit card number, and the security code associated with your payment instrument. All payment data is stored by our payment processor and you should review its privacy policies and contact the payment processor directly to respond to your questions.

All personal information that you provide to us must be true, complete and accurate, and you must notify us of any changes to such personal information.

Information automatically collected

In Short: Some information – such as IP address and/or browser and device characteristics is automatically collected when you visit our Sites.

Like many businesses, when you access and use an Argano Site, there are 3 ways we may collect information about you:

1. Information Sent to Us by Your Web Browser

Argano collects information that is sent to us automatically by your web browser. This information typically includes the IP address of your Internet service provider, the name of your operating system, browser and device characteristics, referring URLs, device name, country, location, information about how and when you use our Sites and other technical information. The information we receive depends on the settings on your web browser. Please check your browser if you want to learn what information your browser sends or how to change your settings. The information provided by your browser does not identify you personally. We use this information to create statistics that help us improve our sites and make them more compatible with the technology used by our Internet visitors

2. Information You Knowingly and Voluntarily Provide

Argano collects the information you knowingly and voluntarily provide when you use an Argano Internet Site, for example, the information you provide when you sign up to receive email alerts, when you complete a survey, or when you ask us a question or email us with feedback. In many cases, this information will be personal information. Argano uses this information for the purposes for which you provide it. We may also use the information we collect on Argano Internet Sites for various business purposes such as customer service, fraud prevention, market research, improving our products and services, and providing you and your company with information and offers we believe may be of interest to you. We may also remove all the personally identifiable information and use the rest for historical, statistical or scientific purposes.

Information collected from other sources

In Short: We may collect limited data from public databases, marketing partners, and other outside sources.

We may obtain information about you from other sources, such as public databases, joint marketing partners, as well as other third parties. Examples of the information we receive from other sources include: social media profile information, marketing leads and search results, and links, including paid listings (such as sponsored links).

Links to Third Party Internet Sites

Argano Internet Sites may contain links to Internet sites that are not operated by Argano. These links are provided as a service and do not imply any endorsement of the activities or content of these sites, nor any association with their operators. Argano does not control these Internet sites and is not responsible for their content, security, or privacy practices. We urge you to review the privacy policy posted on websites you visit before using the site or providing personal information.

2. HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We process your information for purposes based on legitimate business interests, the fulfillment of our contract with you, compliance with our legal obligations, and/or your consent.

We use personal information collected via our Sites for a variety of business purposes described below. We process your personal information for these purposes in reliance on our legitimate business interests ("Business Purposes"), in order to enter into or perform a contract with you ("Contractual"), with your consent ("Consent"), and/or for compliance with our legal obligations ("Legal Reasons"). We indicate the specific processing grounds we rely on next to each purpose listed below.

We use the information we collect or receive:

3. WILL YOUR INFORMATION BE SHARED WITH ANYONE?

In Short: We only share information with your consent, to comply with laws, to protect your rights, or to fulfill business obligations.

Argano will never sell personal information collected from its Internet sites to mailing list brokers or other third parties. Argano may share your personal information with third parties we hire to perform services for us. These third parties are required to use the personal information we share with them only to perform services on our behalf and to treat your personal information as strictly confidential. In some cases, Argano may share your personal information with third parties who partner with us to provide products and services to our customers. When we do so, we will require our business partners to use the personal information we share with them in a manner consistent with the purposes for which it was originally collected (or to which you subsequently consented) and only as permitted under this Policy, any applicable Country or Web Site Privacy Statements, and all applicable privacy and data protection laws. In certain, limited circumstances we may share or transfer personal information to unrelated third parties.

For example, we may provide personal information to a third party for the following reasons:

4. DO WE USE COOKIES AND OTHER TRACKING TECHNOLOGIES?

In Short: Yes, we use cookies and other tracking technologies to collect and store your information.

Information Collected by Placing a "Cookie" On Your Computer

Argano may obtain information about you by installing a "tag" on your computer's hard drive. This tag is known as a "cookie." All Argano Internet Sites use "session cookies." A session cookie is used to tag your computer with a computer-generated, unique identifier when you access our site. A session cookie does not identify you personally and expires after you close your browser. We use session cookies to collect statistical information about the ways visitors use our sites', which pages they visit, which links they use, and how long they stay on each page. We analyze this information in statistical form to better understand our visitor's interests and needs to improve the content and functionality of our sites. Some Argano Internet sites also use "persistent cookies." These cookies do not expire when you close your browser; they stay on your computer until you delete them. By assigning your computer a unique identifier, we are able to create a database of your previous choices and preferences, and in situations where these choices or preferences need to be collected again, they can be provided by us automatically, saving you time and effort. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may set your browser to reject cookies or to alert you when a cookie is placed on your computer. Although you are not required to accept cookies when you visit an Argano Internet Site, you may be unable to use all of the functionality of the site if your browser rejects our cookies.

5. HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION?

In Short: We keep your information for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this privacy policy unless otherwise required by law.

Argano retains all personal information collected on Argano Internet Sites and web forms as long as necessary to provide the services, products, and information you request or as permitted by applicable law.

We respond to all requests we receive from individuals wishing to exercise their data protection rights in accordance with applicable data protection laws. Notwithstanding the foregoing, we reserve the right to keep any information in our archives that we deem necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes and enforce our agreements.

Access to Personal Information

You may review, correct and update the personal information that you provide to us by writing to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA or emailing us at privacy@argano.com.

6. HOW DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION SAFE?

In Short: We aim to protect your personal information through a system of organizational and technical security measures.

Your personal information will generally be stored in Argano databases or databases maintained by our service providers. Most of these databases are stored on servers located in the United States. To the extent required by law, if your personal information will be transferred outside your country an appropriate notice will be provided. Argano maintains reasonable safeguards to protect the confidentiality, security, and integrity of your personal information. For example, we use secure socket layer (SSL) technology to transfer personal information over the Internet. Although we use security measures to help protect your personal information against unauthorized disclosure, misuse or alteration, as is the case with all computer networks linked to the Internet, we cannot guarantee the security of information provided over the Internet and will not be responsible for breaches of security beyond our reasonable control.

7. WHAT ARE YOUR PRIVACY RIGHTS?

In Short: In some regions, such as the European Economic Area, you have rights that allow you greater access to and control you're your personal information. You may review, change, or terminate your account at any time.

If you are a resident of the European Economic Area, you have the following data protection rights:

Cookies and similar technologies: Most Web browsers are set to accept cookies by default. If you prefer, you can usually choose to set your browser to remove cookies and to reject cookies.

8. DO WE MAKE UPDATES TO THIS POLICY?

In Short: Yes, we will make updates to this policy as necessary to stay compliant with relevant laws.

Argano reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to change, modify, add or remove any portion of this policy, in whole or in part, at any time. Changes in Policy will be effective when posted. You agree to review this Policy periodically to be aware of any changes. Your continued use of the Site after any changes to this Policy will be considered acceptance of those changes.

9. CALIFORNIA CONSUMER PRIVACY ACT

If you are a California resident, you may have certain rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act regarding your personal information, including:

You can exercise one or more of these rights by emailing us at privacy@argano.com. You can also submit a contact form, or write to us at Argano LLC, Global Privacy Policy, 6111 W Plano Pkwy, Suite 1500, Plano, TX 75093 USA. You have the right to opt-out of marketing communications we send you at any time. You can exercise this right by clicking on the “unsubscribe” or “opt-out” link in the marketing emails we send you. To opt-out of other forms of marketing (such as postal marketing or telemarketing), you may contact us using the contact details provided below.
